CEO WELCOME

As CEO of Langley Trust, I welcome you and thank you for your interest in working with us.

Langley is centred around the belief that everyone deserves another chance. We help people with convictions to transform their lives, promoting rehabilitation, preventing crime, and reducing re-offending.

We work with people of all faiths, and none, and believe that everyone is worthy of respect, no matter what their past looks like. Our work is challenging but so very rewarding for the right candidate and I invite you to look at the roles we have available.

They are varied and spread across the country, some with a requirement to be a practicing Christian, and many without. I am proud to say we are recognised within the Care, Justice and Housing sectors as an effective provider of services for vulnerable people who have convictions and who may have experienced failure with other placements.

I recognise that our staff and volunteers are the backbone of this organisation, helping clients on their transformation journey and providing care and support in keeping with Langley's values and Christian ethos. I am truly grateful for all that they contribute every day. I hope that this brief introduction to Langley and welcome from me inspires you to keep reading and find out more about working with us as we commit to seeing lives changed for the better.

Kind regards,

Tracy Wild
CEO

ABOUT LANGLEY

Langley Trust is a Christian charity providing supported housing, complex needs care through our registered care homes, programmes and support services in the community for people with convictions. For over 65 years we have been helping adult men and women (18+) with convictions to transform their lives and thrive, believing that everyone deserves another chance, and with the right support, is capable of change.

We are particularly skilled in working with people who are deemed 'hard to place' and those with complex needs. This includes individuals who are subject to MAPPA (Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements).

Across the UK, in 21 geographical urban and rural locations, we can accommodate up to 500 clients within our registered care homes, hostels, community-based houses, and an Independent Approved Premises (delivered on behalf of HM Prison and Probation Service), offering tailored support to meet individuals' needs.

During 2023/24 we worked with a total of 722 clients who needed supported housing. When we include complex care clients, and those who engaged with our other services such as finance, benefit and debt, and accommodation advice, the total number of clients who engaged with Langley rises to more than 1778 during that year.
